Use of this service is subject to existing regulations governing your account and any future changes to those regulations.

12. Online Bill Pay Fees and Charges

Bill payment fees will be as follows: free for the basic bill pay services. Other services available inside bill pay may incur a fee. The Service will notify you of the fee at the time if a fee applies to a specific service within bill pay. (Such as overnight payments.) You agree to pay any additional reasonable charges for services you request which are not covered by this Agreement. You are also responsible for telephone and internet service fees you incur in connection with your use of online banking. You agree that all such fees and charges will be deducted from the Grinnell State Bank checking account that you designate as your primary account. If you close that account, you must contact us immediately to designate another account as your primary account.

13. Posting of Transfers

Transfers initiated through online and or mobile banking before 5:00 p.m. (Central Time) on a business day are posted to your account the same day. Transfers completed after 5:00 p.m. (Central Time) on a business day, Saturday, Sunday, or banking holiday (days Federal Reserve and US Postal System are not open for business), will be posted on the next business day. Online banking identifies transfers based upon the username of the user who made the electronic transfer. Accordingly, you understand and acknowledge that the View Postings screens in both the Transfer and Bill Payer menu options of online banking will not reflect transfers made by multiple users from the same account if different usernames are used. You agree to communicate with any other persons with authorized access to your accounts concerning any transfers or bill payments from your accounts in order to avoid overdrafts.

Grinnell State Bank is not responsible for overdrafts incurred as a result of multiple users accessing bill pay services.

For more information on the manner in which you will have access to the deposits made to your account, please visit our website by copying the following URL address in your web browser for Grinnell State Bank's Funds Availability Notice. www.grinnell.bank/reg-cc/

14. Bill Payment and Transfer Limitations

You may use the Service to check the balance of your eligible account(s) and to transfer funds among your eligible accounts at GSB. However, current federal regulations restrict the number of transactions that you can make from certain types of accounts, such as money market and savings accounts. For these types of accounts, no more than six (6) transfers and withdrawals, or a combination of such transfers and withdrawals, per calendar month or statement cycle (or similar period) of at least 4 weeks, to another account (including a transaction account) of the depositor at the same institution or to a third party by means of a preauthorized or automatic transfer, or telephonic (including data transmission) agreement, order or instruction, or by check, draft, debit card, or similar order made by the depositor and payable to third parties will be allowed. Transfers and bill payments authorized by personal computer through the Service are counted toward the six (6) transfers per statement period. Federal regulations currently place no limits on the number of transfers or bill payments from your checking, therefore this financial institution currently limits the bill pay service to only checking. If a hold has been placed on deposits made to an account from which you wish to transfer funds, you cannot transfer the portion of funds held until the hold expires.

15. Bill Pay Service

Bill pay is an optional service which is available upon enrollment in online banking. Once you have enrolled in online banking, click on the "Bill Payment" tab to complete the enrollment process for the bill payment service. In order to have access to the service:

- You must have an eligible account with Grinnell State Bank.
- Only a checking account may be eligible for bill pay service privileges.
- You must be a resident of the United States or its territories.
- Payments to Billers outside the United States or its territories are prohibited through the Service.

When using the service, you agree to maintain one or more eligible accounts with us and to keep sufficient balances in any account to cover any transaction and fees that are ultimately approved by or related to the service. Access to this service is subject to bank approval. For additional terms and conditions for this service please refer to the "GSB Bill Pay Terms".

16. Overdrafts (Order of Payments, Transfers, and Other Withdrawals)

If your account has insufficient funds to perform all electronic fund transfers you have requested for a given business day, then:

Electronic funds transfers involving currency disbursements, like ATM withdrawals, will have priority.

Electronic fund transfers initiated through online banking which would result in an overdraft of your account may, at our discretion, be canceled.

In the event the electronic funds transfers initiated through online banking which would result in an overdraft to your account are not canceled, Overdraft Item Charges may be assessed pursuant to the terms of the deposit agreement for that account. Refer to the Grinnell State Bank Miscellaneous Services brochure.

You agree to pay such charges and authorize us to deduct the calculated amount from your designated billing account for these amounts and any additional charges that may be incurred by you. Other fees and penalties associated with your standard deposit accounts will continue to apply.

17. Disclosure of Account Information and Transfers

You understand information about your accounts or the transfers you make may automatically be disclosed to others. For example, tax laws require disclosure to the government of the amount of interest you earn, and some transactions, such as large currency and foreign transactions, must be reported to the government. In addition, we routinely inform OnBoard Advisor, (a background screening company) when accounts are closed because they were not handled properly. We may also seek information about you from others, such as the credit bureau, in connection with the opening or maintaining of your account or in connection with approving your access to online banking. You agree and hereby authorize all of these transfers of information.

18. Periodic Statements

You will not receive a separate bank statement. Transfers to and from your accounts using online banking will appear on the respective periodic paper statements for your Bank accounts and mailed or delivered directly to you. You may elect to discontinue receiving your account statement in paper form by contacting the bank and signing an “Internet Banking Monthly Statement Viewing Service and Cancellation of Monthly Paper Statement Agreement”. Grinnell State Bank reserves the right to change the method in which your monthly account statements are delivered to you. Any change will be communicated to you in advance.

19. Change in Terms

We may change any term of this Agreement at any time. If the change would result in increased fees for any online banking service, increased liability for you, fewer types of available electronic funds transfers, or stricter limitations on the frequency or dollar amount of transfers, we agree to give you notice at least thirty (30) days before the effective date of any such change, unless an immediate change is necessary to maintain the security of an account or our electronic funds transfer system. We will post any required notice of the change in terms on our Bank website or forward it to you by e-mail or by postal mail, in accordance with regulatory disclosure requirements. Your continued use of any or all of the subject online banking services indicates your acceptance of the change in terms. We reserve the right to waive, reduce or reverse charges or fees in individual situations. You acknowledge and agree that changes to fees applicable to specific accounts are governed by the applicable deposit agreements and disclosures.

The transfer of funds will be via an electronic ACH transaction. The initial setup for the Account-to-Account Transfer service as well as setting up any external accounts from another financial institution must be done through the web browser before being able to use verified external accounts to send and receive money through the mobile app.

Additional transaction charges may apply to the funds transfer when a request to debit your account with Grinnell State Bank results in an overdraft to that GSB account, a Paid Item Charge or Return Item Charge for the overdraft may apply each time a transfer transaction is presented which would create an overdraft or results in an overdraft to your Eligible GSB account. Refer to the Grinnell State Bank Miscellaneous Services brochure. You agree to pay such charges and authorize us to deduct the calculated amount from the applicable Eligible Transaction Account you hold with us or the Account that is debited for the funds transfer, depending on how such charges are described in the user interface for the Account-to-Account Transfer Service. Any financial fees associated with your standard deposit accounts will continue to apply. Refer to the Truth & Savings disclosure for your account, provided to you at account opening and our Miscellaneous Services brochure. 12. Refused Transfers

We reserve the right to refuse any transfer. As required by applicable law, we will notify you promptly if we decide to refuse to transfer funds.

22. Reg. E Disclosures (Your Liability for Unauthorized Transfers)

The EFT (Electronic Funds Transfer) Act, most commonly known as Regulation E, provides consumers with certain rights and responsibilities with respect to EFTs initiated through our internet banking service. Please read the following EFT disclosures carefully. Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your User ID or password has been lost or stolen. Telephoning us is the best way to keep your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account. If you tell us within two (2) business days, you can lose no more than $50. If you do NOT tell us within 2 days after you learn of the loss or theft of your User ID or password, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from using your login credentials had you told us, you could lose as much as $500.00. Also, if your statement (or for a prepaid account where no statement is sent, if your electronic history or written history) shows transfers that you did not make, including those made by card, code, or other means, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was transmitted to you (or for a prepaid account where no statement is sent, 60 days after the earlier of the date you electronically access your account, if the error could be viewed in your electronic history, or the date we sent the FIRST written history on which the error appeared), you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we may in our sole discretion extend the period.

23. Taxes

It is your responsibility to determine what, if any, taxes apply to the transactions you make or receive, and it is your responsibility to collect, report and remit the correct tax to the appropriate tax authority. We are not responsible for determining whether taxes apply to your transaction, or for collecting, reporting, or remitting any taxes arising from any transaction.

24. Failed or Returned Transfer Instructions

In using the Account-to-Account Transfer Service, you are requesting that we or our Service Provider attempt to make transfers for you from your Eligible Transaction Account. If the Transfer Instruction cannot be completed for any reason associated with your Eligible Transaction Account (for example, there are insufficient funds in your Eligible Transaction Account, or the Transfer Instruction would exceed the overdraft line of credit limit or overdraft protection limit of your Eligible Transaction Account, to cover the transfer, if applicable), the Transfer Instruction may or may not be completed. In certain circumstances, our Service Provider may either advance funds drawn on their corporate account or via an electronic debit, and in such circumstances will attempt to debit the Eligible Transaction Account a second time to complete the Transfer Instruction. In some instances, you will receive a return notice from us or our Service Provider. In each such case, you agree that:

You will reimburse our Service Provider immediately upon demand the amount of the Transfer Instruction if the transfer has been delivered but there are insufficient funds in, or insufficient overdraft credits associated with, your Eligible Transaction Account to allow the debit processing to be completed;

You may be assessed a late fee equal to one and a half percent (1.5%) of any unpaid amounts plus costs of collection by our Service Provider or their third-party contractor if the Transfer Instruction cannot be debited because you have insufficient funds in your Eligible Transaction Account, or the transaction would exceed the overdraft line of credit limit of your Eligible Transaction Account, to cover the transfer, or if the funds cannot otherwise be collected from you. The aforesaid amounts will be charged in addition to any Paid Item Charge or Return Item Charge (overdraft item charges) that may be assessed by us, as set forth in your Miscellaneous Services brochure from us or your account agreement with us. You hereby authorize us and our Service Provider to deduct all of these amounts from your designated Eligible Transaction Account, including by ACH debit. Service Provider is authorized to report the facts concerning the return to any credit reporting agency.

25. Address or Banking Changes

It is your sole responsibility, and you agree to ensure that the contact information in your user profile is current and accurate. This includes, but is not limited to, name, physical address, phone numbers and email addresses. If you need to make changes to your customer profile for anything listed above, you can do so by calling our customer service Department at 800-236-3187 or stopping in any one of our branches. We are not responsible for any payment processing errors or fees incurred if you do not provide an accurate Eligible Transaction Account, Transfer Instructions or contact information.

26. Information Authorization

Your enrollment in the applicable Account-to-Account Transfer Service may not be fulfilled if we cannot verify your identity or other necessary information. In addition, and in accordance with our Privacy Policy, you agree that we reserve the right to obtain personal information about you, including without limitation, financial information, and transaction history regarding your Eligible Transaction Account. You further understand and agree that we reserve the right to use personal information about you for our and our Service Providers' everyday business purposes, such as to maintain your ability to access the

30. Change in Terms or Amendments

We may change any term of this Agreement at any time. If the change would result in increased fees for the Account-to-Account Transfer Service, increased liability for you, fewer types of available electronic funds transfers, or stricter limitations on the frequency or dollar amount of transfers, we agree to give you notice at least thirty (30) days before the effective date of any such change, unless an immediate change is necessary to maintain the security of an account or our electronic funds transfer system. We will post any required notice of the change in terms on the Bank website or forward it to you by e-mail or by postal mail, in accordance with regulatory disclosure requirements. Your continued use of any or all of the subject online banking services indicates your acceptance of the change in terms. We reserve the right to waive, reduce or reverse charges or fees in individual situations. You acknowledge and agree that changes to fees applicable to specific accounts are governed by the applicable deposit agreements and disclosures. Further, we may, from time to time, revise, update, upgrade or enhance the Account-to-Account Transfer Service and/or related applications or material, which may render all such prior versions obsolete. Consequently, we reserve the right to terminate this Agreement as to all such prior versions of the Account-to-Account Transfer Service, and/or related applications and material, and limit access to only the Account-to-Account Transfer Service's more recent revisions, updates, upgrades, or enhancements.

In addition, we, in our sole discretion, reserve the right to terminate this Agreement, access to the Site and/or use of the Account-to-Account Transfer Service for any reason or no reason and at any time. The remedies contained in this Section 33 are cumulative and are in addition to the other rights and remedies available to us under this Agreement, by law or otherwise.

34. Disputes

In addition, if applicable to you, you waive California Civil Code §1542, which states that a general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release, which if not known by him must have materially affected his settlement with the debtor.

39. No Waiver

We shall not be deemed to have waived any rights or remedies hereunder unless such waiver is in writing and signed by one of our authorized representatives. No delay or omission on our part in exercising any rights or remedies shall operate as a waiver of such rights or remedies or any other rights or remedies.
